(a) Executive Committee: There shall be an Executive Committee of not less than three Directors, the members of which shall consist of the officers of the Corporation and the Chairs of the Standing Committees, and the Chairs of additional standing committees that are established by the Board of Directors. Except as may otherwise be provided by law or by the Board, the Executive Committee, during the intervals between the meetings of the Board, may exercise any of the powers of the Board in the management of the affairs of the Corporation that may be specifically delegated to the Executive Committee by action of the Board of Directors, including the power to determine the distribution of property of the Corporation as provided in Article VII (subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws), authority over the investment policies with respect to the property of the Corporation, whether held directly or through trustees, custodians or agents, and such other duties and authority as may be delegated to it by the Board. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Executive Committee shall keep full records and accounts of its proceedings and transactions. All action by the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting and shall be subject to control, revision, and alteration by the Board, provided that no rights of third persons shall be prejudicially affected thereby. Vacancies in the Executive Committee shall be filled for the unexpired term by the Board, and the Board may appoint one or more Directors as alternate members of the Executive Committee to take the place of any absent members at any meeting. The Board shall have the power at any time to change the membership of the Executive Committee, to fill vacancies in it, or to dissolve it. The Executive Committee shall not have any of the powers listed at Section 709 of the Act including (but not by way of limitation) the following powers:

(i) To amend the Articles of Incorporation;
(ii) To adopt a plan of merger or consolidation;
(iii) To recommend to the Members the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation other than in the usual course of its business;
(iv) To recommend to the Members voluntary dissolution of the Corporation or revocation of such dissolution; or
(v) To amend the Bylaws of the Corporation.

(b) Nominating Committee: There shall be a Nominating Committee and its responsibilities shall include determination of selection criteria for prospective Directors, identification and recruitment of candidates for the Board, selection of Director nominees to be presented to the Members for election at the Annual Meeting of the Members and selection of Officer nominees to be presented to the Directors for election at the Annual Meeting of the Directors. The Committee shall be constituted of at least three (3) Directors nominated by the Board Chair and approved by the Board of Directors at a Regular Meeting of the Directors at least 60 days in advance of the Annual Meeting.

6.2 Special Committees: The Board Chair may appoint, from time to time, such special committees as may be (in his or her discretion) advisable to carry out the purposes of the Corporation. Such special committees shall serve as long as the purpose for which they were created exists, unless dissolved by the Board of Directors. The purposes and authority of such committees shall be set forth in the Minutes of the meeting of the Directors at which the Board Chair announces the establishment of the committee.

6.3 Membership and Chairs: Members of all committees shall be appointed by the Board Chair and one (1) member of each committee shall be appointed committee chair by the Board Chair after receiving recommendations concerning this appointment from each committee. Except as otherwise provided below, membership on committees may include persons other than Directors, professional advisors, and other interested persons. Alternate or replacement members of any committee shall be appointed or elected, as the case may be, in the same manner as committee members are initially selected.

6.4 Tenure: A member of a committee shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation or until his/her successor is appointed, unless the committee shall dissolve sooner or unless he/she is removed from such committee or unless the individual ceases to qualify as a member of such committee.

ARTICLE 7. MEETINGS

7.1 Notice of Meetings:

(a) Notice of all meetings of the Members shall be given by the Secretary of the Corporation, or in the absence or disability of the Secretary, by the Board Chair or Vice Board Chair or Executive Director at the request of the Board Chair, by mailing to each Member a written or printed notice specifying the time and place of the meeting or emailing such notice and, in the event of a special meeting, the purposes thereof. Such notices shall be addressed to such Member at her last known mailing address or e-mail address and mailed or transmitted not less than ten (10) days, nor more than fifty (50) days before the meeting.

(b) The Board Chair shall select the date, time and place for holding regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors and shall cause notice to be given to all Directors not less than five (5) days prior to the call of the meeting.

(c) Whenever all Members or all Directors are present at a meeting of the Members, or the Board of Directors, respectively, or when the Members or Directors not present at a meeting shall sign a consent to action, such action shall be of the same effect as if notice had been duly given as aforesaid.

(d) Meetings of any committees of the Corporation may be called by the Board Chair of the Corporation or the chair of the committee who shall cause written notice of the date, time and place of a meeting of any committee to be given to all committee members and to each Director of the Corporation at least five (5) days in advance of the date of the meeting.

(e) Whenever any notice whatever is required to be given under the Articles of Incorporation or these Corporate Bylaws or any provision of law, a waiver thereof in writing, signed at any time, whether before or after the time of meeting, by the person or entity entitled to such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Neither the purpose of, nor business to be transacted at, any annual, regular or special meeting need be specified on the waiver of notice, unless specifically required by law. Attendance at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a meeting is attended for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

7.2 Meetings and Action of the Members:

(a) The annual meeting of the Members shall be held during the month of November of each year, at such time and location as set forth in the notice of the meeting. In the event of a failure for any reason to hold an annual meeting as aforesaid, any business, which might properly be transacted at an annual meeting, including the election of Directors, may be transacted at a special meeting.

(b) Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the Board Chair or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of twenty (20) percent of the Members of the Corporation.

7.3 Meetings of the Board of Directors: Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall normally be held at least quarterly. Directors may participate in regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors by telephone conference call; provided, however, that all of the Directors must be able to hear one another at the same time. The incumbent Directors and Officers shall retain their authority and responsibilities until successor Directors assume their offices in accordance with the terms of these Corporate Bylaws.

7.4 Meetings of Committees: Meetings of standing committees and special committees may be called by the Board Chair of the Corporation or the chair of the committee. Except as otherwise provided in these Corporate Bylaws, each committee shall meet as often as necessary and appropriate to perform its duties. Each committee shall report to the Board of Directors at its next Regular Meeting subsequent to each meeting of the committee and such reports shall be kept as part of the minutes of the Board of Directors.
7.5 Quorum, Voting and Manner of Acting:

(a) At any meeting of the Members of the Corporation, a quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of not less than the lesser of either ten percent (10%), or twenty-five (25), of the Members; provided, however, that a smaller number may adjourn such a meeting from time to time until a quorum is obtained. In the case of a meeting of the Directors, or any committee of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Directors or persons serving on the committee that have been elected (or otherwise appointed) and qualified then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting; provided, however, that if less than a quorum is present, then a majority of the Directors or persons serving on the committee present may adjourn the meeting.

(b) The act of a majority of the Members, Directors or persons serving on a committee of the Board of Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the body meeting, unless the act of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Corporate Bylaws, or any provision of law.

(c) Each Member, Director or individual serving on a committee of the Corporation who is present shall have one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at any meeting. Except at meetings of the Members where proxies shall be permitted, voting by proxy at meetings of the Directors or its committees shall not be permitted.

7.6 Conduct of Meetings: The Board Chair of the Corporation, or in the absence of the Board Chair, the Board Vice Chair, shall call any meeting of the Members or Directors to order and shall act as the chairperson of the meeting. The chairperson of a committee, or in his/her absence, a vice chairperson or chair pro tem, shall call any committee meeting to order and shall act as the chairperson of the meeting.

7.7 Mechanisms for Board Action in the Absence of a Meeting: If all the Members or Directors sign a written consent specifying any action desired to be taken by the Members or the Board of Directors of the Corporation, such action shall be a valid corporate action as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the Members or Directors and the secretary shall file such consent with the minutes of the meeting of the Members or Directors to be read at the ensuing regular meeting. A consent may be executed in counterpart originals as long as all counterparts are maintained in the corporate record book by the Secretary.

7.8 Conflicts of Interest: A transaction may be approved by the Directors (or the Executive Committee thereof) notwithstanding a conflict of interest either if the transaction is fair at the time it was entered into, or if the material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest are disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or Executive Committee when they approve the transaction.
(a) A conflict-of-interest transaction is a transaction in which a director or officer of a corporation has a direct or indirect financial interest. For the purposes of this section, a director or officer has an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(i) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material interest or in which the director or officer is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(ii) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer or trustee is a party to the transaction.

(b) A transaction in which a director or officer of the Corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved before or after consummation of the transaction as follows:

(i) The Board of Directors or Executive Committee of the Board may authorize, approve or ratify a transaction under this section if the material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board; provided, however, that a transaction may not be approved by a single director. The transaction may be approved only if it is fair and equitable to the Corporation as of the date the transaction is authorized, approved or ratified. The party asserting fairness of any such transaction has the burden of establishing fairness.

(ii) If the Board of Directors or Executive Committee is unable to make a decision regarding a transaction and one or more of the Directors so requests, a transaction may be approved by the Attorney General or by the Superior Court in an action in which the Attorney General is joined as a party in accordance with Section 718.3 of the Act; provided, however, that the transaction may be approved only if it is fair and equitable to the corporation as of the date the transaction is authorized, approved or ratified. The party asserting fairness of any such transaction has the burden of establishing fairness.

(c) The Directors shall guide their conduct with respect to conflict of interest transactions through implementation of the following procedural safeguards:

(i) Prior to taking his or her position on the Board of Directors and annually thereafter, each Director shall submit in writing to the Board Chair of the Corporation a list of all businesses and other organizations of which the Director is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (either as a sole proprietor or partner), shareholder with at least 5% interest in all outstanding voting shares, employee or agent with which the Corporation has, or might be expected to have, a relationship or a transaction in which the Director might have a conflicting interest. Each written statement will be resubmitted with any necessary changes annually. The Board Chair and Executive Director each shall become familiar with the statements of all Directors in order to guide his or her conduct should a conflict arise. The Treasurer of the Corporation shall be familiar with the statement filed by the Board Chair.

(ii) At such time as any matter comes before the Board of Directors in such a way as to give rise to a conflict of interest, the affected Director shall make known the potential conflict, whether disclosed by the Director's written statement or not, and after answering any questions that might be asked of him or her, shall withdraw from the meeting for so long as the matter shall continue under discussion. Should the matter be brought to a vote, the affected Director shall not vote thereon. In the event that such Director fails to withdraw voluntarily, the Board Chair is empowered to and shall require that the affected Director remove himself or herself from the room during both the discussion and vote on the matter. In the event the conflict of interest affects the Board Chair, the Treasurer is empowered to and shall require that the Board Chair remove himself or herself in the same manner, and for the duration of discussion and action on the matter, the Treasurer shall preside.

(iii) If the matter is the item of business for which a special meeting of the Board of Directors was called, the affected Director shall not be counted to establish a quorum, nor shall he or she participate in the deliberations or vote thereon.

7.9 Attendance: Directors are expected to attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and of any committees on which they serve, unless excused by the Board Chair for good cause or unless this provision is waived by unanimous vote of the remaining Directors. Participation in meetings by telephone conference call shall have the same effect as presence in person at the meeting. Directors are expected to attend at least two-thirds of the meetings held each year.

ARTICLE 8. RESIGNATIONS, REMOVALS & VACANCIES

8.1 Resignation: Any Member, Director, Officer or person appointed to serve on a committee of the Corporation may resign as such at any time by giving written notice to the Board Chair or the Secretary, or (only in the case of a Director) by absence from three (3) successive meetings of the Directors. Written resignations shall take effect at the time therein specified, or upon receipt if no time shall have been specified. With respect to resignations of Directors deemed offered by three consecutive absences, they shall not be accepted except by affirmative vote of a majority of Directors present at a meeting subsequent to the meeting giving rise to the deemed offer of resignation. Unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
8.2 Removal: Any Member, Director, Officer or person serving on any committee of the Corporation may be removed at any time with or without cause by vote of the body or action of the individual that elected or appointed the individual as Member, Director, Officer or committee member whenever the best interest of the Corporation shall be served thereby. Such removal shall not affect any contract rights of the person so removed; provided, however, that the election or appointment of an individual to any position or office within the Corporation shall not, in itself, create contract rights.

8.3 Vacancies: In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors, or among the Corporate Officers occurring between Annual Meetings of the Members, the Directors may act to fill any such vacancy until the next Annual, Regular or Special Meeting of the Members at which time the Vacancy shall be filled in the manner, and for the unexpired term, of the person creating the vacancy. Vacancies shall be filled forthwith, and any person elected to fill a vacancy shall be so advised and shall serve with the same rights and duties of such person as they are elected to succeed.

ARTICLE 9. INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Indemnification: The Corporation shall in all cases, to the fullest extent permitted by the Maine Nonprofit Corporations Act, indemnify any person who was or is involved in any manner (including, without limitation, as a party or a witness) in any threatened, pending or completed investigation, claim, action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (including, without limitation, any action, suit, or proceeding brought by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that that person is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, against all liabilities and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such actions, suits or proceedings including but not limited to attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement. This Section is subject to the limitations set forth in Section 9.2.

9.2 Limitations on Indemnification: No indemnification shall be provided for any person with respect to any matter as to which that person shall have been finally adjudicated in any action, suit or proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that that person’s action was in the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that that person’s conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order or conviction adverse to such person, or by settlement or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that such person did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that his action was in the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
9.3 Requirement of Indemnification: Any provision of Sections 9.1, 9.2 or 9.4 to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that a director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 9.1, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, that person shall be indemnified against all expenses and liabilities, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection therewith. The right to indemnification granted by this Section 9.3 may be enforced by a separate action against the Corporation, if an order for indemnification is not entered by a court in the action, suit or proceeding wherein he was successful on the merits or otherwise.

9.4 Procedure: Any indemnification under Section 9.1, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because that person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 9.1 and Section 9.2. That determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion. Such a determination, once made by the Board of Directors may not be revoked by the Board of Directors, and upon the making of such determination by the Board of Directors, the director or officer may enforce the indemnification against the Corporation by a separate action notwithstanding any attempted or actual subsequent action by the Board of Directors.

9.5 Expenses: Expenses incurred in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be authorized and paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of that action, suit or proceeding upon a determination made in accordance with the procedure established in Section 9.4 that, based solely on the facts then known to those making the determination and without further investigation, the person seeking indemnification satisfied the standard of conduct prescribed by Section 9.1 and 9.2. Those persons making such determination may, in their discretion, require such person to provide the following to the Corporation:

1. A written undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director to repay that amount if that person is finally adjudicated:

   (i) Not to have acted honestly or in the reasonable belief that the person’s action was in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation;

   (ii) With respect to any criminal action or proceeding, to have had reasonable cause to believe that the person’s conduct was unlawful; and
2. A written affirmation by the officer or director that the person has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Corporation as authorized in this section.

The undertaking required by Paragraph A shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person seeking the advance, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

9.6 Enforceability: The indemnification and entitlement to advances of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in that person’s official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, trustee, partner or fiduciary and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. A right to indemnification may be enforced by a separate action against the Corporation, if an order for indemnification has not been entered by a court in any action, suit or proceeding in respect to which indemnification is sought.

9.7 Insurance: The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer against any liability asserted against that person and incurred by that person in any such capacity, or arising out of that person’s status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under this Article.

ARTICLE 10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on the first day of July and end on the last day of June of each year.

10.2 Gender: Any word or reference contained in these Corporate Bylaws which implies one gender shall be applied to the other gender as appropriate.

10.3 Construction of Titles and Headings: The titles of Articles and headings of Sections of these Corporate Bylaws are intended to aid the reader in locating the substantive provisions contained herein, and they shall neither be interpreted as making or modifying any addition to or change in the substance of the operative provisions of these Corporate Bylaws nor be understood to summarize the provisions to which they relate.
10.4 Severability: In the event that any provision of these Corporate Bylaws is deemed to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, then the remaining provisions of these Corporate Bylaws shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

10.5 Amendment: These Corporate Bylaws may be amended or restated by affirmative vote of the Members provided that any such amendment shall have first received a recommendation approved by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Directors then in office acting at any duly called meeting of the Directors; provided, however, that the text of the amendment or restatement shall have been circulated to the Members and the Directors at least five (5) days prior to the meeting at which action by either body is to be taken and any amendment of provisions also contained in the Articles of Incorporation shall not be approved without also amending the Articles of Incorporation.

END OF BYLAWS
